Curator's Statement

As our community prepares for the great celebration of Easter, the Dadian Gallery presents its biennial exhibition of artwork by staff, faculty and students. The Seminary Celebrates showcases visual art, while the literary and performing arts are on display at the Heart the Arts festival in April. These various mediums contribute to the ongoing conversation between theology and the arts at Wesley.

The exhibition honors Constance Sherridan Hefner, daughter of Jean and Tom Hefner. Members of the Council for the Arts and Religion in the 1990s, they generously endowed this show and continue to be supporters of the arts and the seminary. We are grateful to the Hefners and to all the contributing artists.

The Henry Luce III Center for the Arts and Religion is a program of Wesley Theological Seminary. The Center sponsors a variety of cultural events which explore the intersection of art and religion. All contributions are tax-deductible and gratefully accepted.
